Haunted House

Did you get to visit the Haunted House? We did and lived to tell about it!

The first room of the haunted house had a fake ghost and the rocking chair was going back and forth and then the beach ball fell by us. The second room had some boys that were on the floor and they were screaming at us while grabbing at our ankles. The third room was the doll room and the girls in it asked us if we wanted to play with their decapitated dolls. We should have said, "yes!" The fourth room was the clown room and in it was a clown with a pet monkey and they were screaming at us together. The fifth room was the orphanage room and there was a lady screaming at kids and there was a girl who crawled off of a table and crept all around us and the kids were singing their ABCs. In the sixth room there was a flashing light in the corner that kept flashing at us and when we were just leaving there was a creepy scarecrow man that jumped out at us and scared us. In the seventh room they scream and tell us not to go in there, "she's crazy" they said. The seventh room all she did was lay in her bed. The ninth room was the torture chamber and the guy in it had a whip and started whipping everywhere and had girls in it all tied up. The tenth room was the zombie room and when you walked in the girl was right in your face, the zombies had glowing hands.

After you are done walking through the haunted house a guy jumps out and scares you. Be prepared for anything! Great job High School Choir students.

Pumpkin carving is over, but can still be fun. The 1st and 5th graders carved pumpkins on October 27th. The first graders were awesome listeners and helpers. But I can say the pumpkin my 1st grade friend picked was HEAVY! The good thing is that I was able to get it to the classroom and then to the bus when we were done carving. I hope he was able to find someone to carry it off the bus for him because there is no way he could have carried it all by himself. It was a fun day for everyone including the teachers. The hot chocolate, plus the pumpkin bars were very good and refreshing that day. I could have been in paradise if that were all at my house, not to be greedy.

How To Get A's

This is how you get A's. You have to make an effort to get your work in. You also have to try your hardest, and get your work done on time. One big thing is you have to listen in class.

Also in 5th grade you need to know your math facts or you're not going to get very far in life. If you're not a good test taker then take some notes. A tip for taking notes is to look at the first paragraph it will practically tell you about what the paragraph is about. Then you can use it to study for a test.

Also if you're not sure about an answer, and it's an open book test go back and look in the book for the answer it has to be in there somewhere, or if it's not an open book test, and it's a multiple choice question just look for the one that makes the most sense. If it is an essay question, just do the best you can.

If you're not a good speller, and your teacher gives you a spelling packet use it to help you on your spelling maybe you'll get 100%. But if you don't I bet you'll do pretty well. Every morning we do a DOL to help you with spelling and grammar, this helps with other homework too. By: Dane

State Cross Country

Anthony Teller made it to state for Cross Country this year, his second state appearance. Rachel Lawton also made it to state. They are the only two from the Flambeau Cross Country team to advance to the state meet. Anthony Tellier is a senior this year. He decided to join cross-country because Mr. P pushed him to do it. His goal is to be in the top ten at state and his personal record is 17:32. He said he might join the Cross Country team in college. Anthony is a very confident runner and I hope he continues to run in college.

Do You Know The History of Thanksgiving?

One Thanksgiving on Thursday, November 23, the pilgrims gathered around the table to eat a lovely, mouth-watering turkey. As the leader of the pilgrims was cutting the turkey all the pilgrims said what they were thankful for. The holiday they were celebrating became known as Thanksgiving. As we take a look at the past you will discover that pilgrims and Native Americans are now friends.

One Thanksgiving on November, 23 1621 Columbus was begging the king and queen to pay for his travel to find new land. He finally persuaded them. He tried to get there but he ended up in uncharted land. There were Native Americans that were not sure what that big object was. They would try to fight all the time. But they finally became friends and had a big feast together. By: Caitie
