Overview

We are looking forward to focusing on Gratitude this month! One way to think about Gratitude is “choosing to appreciate the people and things in our lives.” Practicing Gratitude can increase our well-being and our happiness.

Gratitude is 1 of 3 traits we will focus on throughout the year that helps students Be Well. Throughout the school, students will be developing skills like emotion regulation, positive self-talk, and stress management.

In The Classroom

Sharing how we feel with others is a way to advocate for ourselves. This month, 3rd grade students will practice sharing their emotions and expressing what they need.

Students will use the Emotion Elements to name their emotions and I-Statements to communicate when faced with a challenging situation.

Emotion Elements

- Wind represents feeling words like inspired, anxious, playful, and nervous.
- Water represents feeling words like concerned, thoughtful, tired, and bored.
- Fire represents feeling words like annoyed, overwhelmed, excited, and scared.
- Earth represents feeling words like motivated, focused, confident, and proud.

I-Statement Structure:

I feel ___ when ___ and I would like _____.

Conversation Starters

- What does it mean to advocate for yourself?
- Why do you think it is important to be Grateful for our emotions?

Have some fun connecting as a family this month while practicing Gratitude. Here are 3 "PurposeFull Pursuits" for you to complete together. How many can you do this month?

Pursuit #1

What are some small, specific things that you are Grateful for? Maybe it is your favorite water cup, the way the cat sleeps on the chair, or when your grandma bakes banana bread. Spend some time as a family trying to think of at least 10 small things that you have Gratitude for and then choose to notice them this week with a smile.

Pursuit #2

Review Gratitude as a family! Remember that Gratitude is choosing to appreciate the people and things in our lives. Find a place in your home to display a glass jar. Cut up small slips of paper and place them next to the jar. Use the jar to collect special people, places, events, and memories that your family is thankful for. Find a time each week to add slips of Gratitude to the jar and assist students in writing or drawing gratitude as needed. Having a gloomy day or a challenging time as a family? Pull out the slips of Gratitude and read them aloud together as a reminder of your Grateful moments.

Pursuit #3

Set aside some time to gather as a family and check in with each other. Ask each family member, "How are you feeling today?" Practice Honesty when responding and listen carefully as each family member shares. Use the emotion check-in questions to learn more. Challenge yourselves to check in with each other on a regular basis! Let people know you are Grateful for their willingness to share.

Emotion Check-In Questions:

- Tell me more about that feeling.
- Why do you think you are feeling that emotion?
- What do you need right now?
